Artist Trading Cards and Social

Calling all members!

West Carleton Arts Society's Artist Trading Group and all West Carleton Arts Society members, come to the December Articulate meeting and learn, make and trade Artist Trading Cards while enjoying a fun social evening with other members.

Deborah Guthrie will give a brief overview for anyone new or unsure of how to create these miniature works of art. Play stations will be set up with a variety of ATC cards and supplies to work with. Deborah will share her art books about this popular art form as well as her binder from past trades.

Inspiration, supplies and socializing - what's not to like!

Members who have been making ATCs, please come prepared to trade as well as participate and play at this meeting. No experience necessary for those who haven't previously made Artist Trading Cards. Lots of fun to be had, so come for a social and interactive evening and go home with art.

NOTE: if any member wishes to bring a light snack to add to our evenings "refreshment" table, it would not be discouraged :)

Hope to see you all on the 20th!
