

ARTICULATE

'Fireside' Artist talks in Carp

West Carleton Arts Society Members free, Guests $5

Wednesday October 18, 2017 7:00 pm

St Paul's United Church, 3760 Carp Road
parking and entrance at the back

Jessie Parker, Artist, author
Topic: Tax Issues for Artists

Jessie will be presenting on the most important issues for artists when it comes to taxes. This presentation will draw from info in her books on the subject.

Including, but not limited to:

- How to avoid being audited: your legal rights
- Keeping good records: how and why
- How to DIY easily
- The artist's estate: new Ontario rules and issues

Jessie is author of Tax Smarts for Artists and Money Smarts for Visual Artists (Amazon)

Bio Info: Jessie has been a professional artist for over 50 years, a teacher, and stock photographer, with extensive experience dealing with accounting, and tax matters that artists face.

She has lectured at the National Gallery of Canada, and has advised clients as a Certified Financial Planner. She has also successfully responded to a CRA audit as an artist.

Recently she is in demand as a speaker on issues for artists (tax, pricing art, photo based art as a medium) by Ottawa Art Gallery, ALSO (Artists Legal Services of Ottawa) and various regional arts groups.

For more information see www.westcarletonartsociety.ca