Anne Wright, Artist

Elements | Art Residency

Join Ottawa-based mixed media artist, Anne Wright (www.annewrightartist.com), for an evening about art residencies. Anne will share her experiences of two month-long art residencies -- one self-financed in the Burren, in the west of Ireland, and another fully sponsored at Kingsbrae in St. Andrews New Brunswick. How to find and choose a residency, applying, designing your residency, finding your way into your voice.

Anne is an abstract expressionist painter. She has worked in watercolour and acrylic and since 2008 with encaustic - molten beeswax, resin and pigment. She has exhibited in Toronto (Muse Gallery), Provincetown, St. Andrews NB, and currently has pieces at the Ottawa Gallery of Art Sales and Rentals. She paints half-time, inspired by poetry, and the other half time she works as an executive coach and facilitator. She offers workshops in Vocare | using the arts to find your way in your life. She is a member of OMMA, and the Ottawa Poetry Bards.
