Andrea Warren painter, mixed media

Andrea Warren is a painter and mixed media artist based out of Ottawa, ON. Since 2008, she has been a Working Artist for Golden Artist Colors, an acrylic paint company based out of New Berlin, New York, providing lectures and workshops on acrylic materials for universities and art associations across central and eastern Canada.

Andrea is also an instructor with Artswell, an Ottawa based charity that provides community therapeutic art programs, and part of the multidisciplinary art collective, Etcetera.

Andrea will be sharing her techniques in creating her abstract and mixed media pieces, and speaking about what inspires her when she works. She will also be demo-ing her favourite art materials such as Clear Tar Gel and Self-Levelling Gel, giving little tips and tricks on how to use them in your own work. She will be handing out samples for you to try at home.
